Gabriel Dawoud

Mississauga, ON | 905-517-3507 | dawoudgabriel@gmail.com

PROFILE

Software Engineering Technology – Artificial Intelligence student with experience in programming, databases, and software development projects.

Strong problem solver and multitasker with effective teamwork and communication skills, a willingness to learn, and the ability to contribute to a professional environment.

Problem Solver | Collaborative | Adaptable

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Programming & Web: Python, Java, C#, JavaScript, HTML

Database Skills: SQL, Oracle
Currently Learning: Node.js, NumPy

EDUCATION

Centennial College — Toronto, ON

Software Engineering Technology – Artificial Intelligence (Co-op)

Expected Graduation: April 2028

Relevant Courses:

AI Systems Design, Introduction to AI, Java Programming, Programming 2, Introduction to Database Concepts, Web Application Development

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

House Price Prediction System

- Developed a modular house price prediction system using Python with separate components for data loading, preprocessing, model training, evaluation, and prediction.

Gabriel Dawoud | 905-517-3507 | dawoudgabriel@gmail.com

Online Appointment Scheduling & Management System

- Created software requirements, use cases, sequence diagrams, CRC cards, and class diagrams for an online appointment scheduling system as part of a team project.

Watches and Smart Watches Database Project

• Designed a normalized relational database in Oracle, including tables, primary and foreign keys, and SQL queries for a watches and smart watches system.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Service Agent / Information Officer / Office Clerk — Elections Canada

Mississauga, ON

March 2025 – April 2025

- Assisted voters by answering questions, providing directions, and helping them understand the polling process.
- Verified voter information and identification while following election procedures and maintaining accuracy.
- Completed office and data-entry tasks, organized election documents, and assisted staff with administrative work.

Service Agent / Information Officer / Office Clerk — Elections Ontario

Mississauga, ON

February 2025

- Assisted voters with questions, directions, and information throughout the polling process.
- Verified voter information and identification while following Elections Ontario procedures and maintaining accuracy.
- Completed office and data-entry tasks, organized election documents, and supported staff with administrative duties.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Problem-solving through programming, database, and software projects
- Teamwork through group software and database projects
- Communication and customer service from election roles
- Attention to detail and adaptability in technical and administrative work